Our Heartiest Congratulations to the Class of 2021!

Ms Kwee Wei-Lin
President
Singapore Hotel Association

Mr Loh Lik Peng
Chairman
SHATEC

My Heartiest Congratulations to the Class of 2021!

Your graduation at this moment marks a defining stage in your life. After all your hard work and dedication training at SHATEC, you are well-positioned to venture into the exciting world of hospitality.

After almost two years of living with the pandemic, our country has since made great strides to uplift the key pillars of its tourism sector, including the hotel industry. While we prepare for the cautious reopening of our borders and to reintroduce Singapore as a safe and viable travel destination, our people are crucial to rebuilding the way of the future.

In our unique role of creating memorable experiences, the industry will need trained hospitality graduates like you to bring new ideas to life for our guests!

Travellers hoping for a change of scenery are prioritising reliability and safety. They want to travel responsibly with a minimum impact on the planet. More than ever this is your moment to make a difference, and join us as we reimagine travel and hospitality for the new era.

Today, you have more role models who inspire, as well as tools and technology to utilise than before. You can play an important role in shaping the hospitality scene of tomorrow. It is our strong belief that the class of 2021 will not be defined by the prolonged effects of the crisis but by how you respond to it.

On behalf of the Singapore Hotel Association, I wish you all the best in your future endeavours!

On behalf of the SHATEC Board, I extend my heartiest congratulations to all graduating students! I hope that your journey in SHATEC has been rewarding, with lasting memories and invaluable lessons you hold dear. The certificate or diploma in your hand is your ticket to exploring the myriad of paths forward.

As we lift the veil of uncertainty with our widening Vaccinated Travel Lane (VTL) air travel scheme and our island city is being reinvented and reawakened, now is the time for you, a new generation of hospitality and tourism professionals, to ride the wave of recovery with us!

When you encounter challenges, I hope that you draw from your ability to learn and grow, a muscle you have developed that is anchored deep within you. You will build resilience in yourselves and come to enjoy the process of your journey ahead for the best outcomes in your career and life.

I encourage you to make passion and curiosity your greatest pathway to opportunity. I look forward to your next game-changing role in the irreversible and evolving state of the world, and also urge you not to forget your valuable links to SHATEC. You should always do your part to help others who come to follow in your footsteps in the future.

We cannot wait to see what you all achieve in the years ahead. Well done and I wish you every success in your future careers!

Award Recipients

"I believe that the key to success in the hospitality industry comes down to attitude, discipline and placing the guest or diner's health and wellbeing at the center of all your interactions."

When it comes to the culture of service, Nicholas embodies an inspiring outlook to hospitality that he has formed over time across various F&B stints. At SHATEC, his daily experiences of being hospitable and practising empathy has become a lifestyle for him, with his actions building habit.

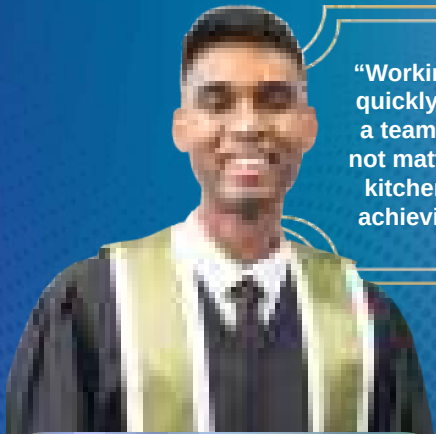

Now, Nicholas has his eye on becoming an entrepreneur, and running a trailblazing day-to-night dining establishment! What he hopes will set his venture apart is the exceptional hospitality by exquisite servers of different nationalities.

Lim Yong Jie Nicholas
Meritorious Award (Management)
Chairman's List

WSQ Diploma in Hotel and Accommodation Services

"Working with experienced chefs, I had to quickly learn the ropes and harmonise as a team. Your [culinary] background does not matter when it is time to perform in the kitchen. I feel immensely rewarded after achieving something different each day."

Ali Bin Shajihan
Meritorious Award (Skills)
Chairman's List

WSQ Diploma in Food Services (Culinary Arts)

Ali's decision to learn the culinary craft came from his fascination with the artistry on a plate of food and how chefs work with different ingredients and textures. In his role as a student and a Supervised Field Trainee (SFT) at The Sapling restaurant, he learnt to work with an unflinching attitude in his kitchen duties.

As an entry-level chef, Ali shows up each day fully engaged. Currently, he works at the gregarious celebrity chef Gaggan Anand's two-month pop-up in Singapore.

Award Recipients

Sameul Tan Weng Yan
Chairman's List

WSQ Diploma in Food Services (Culinary Arts)

"It is easy for others to get ahead of you in this industry, so stay curious! Pay close attention to the way your seniors operate in the kitchen, and adapt from their styles to make it suit you."

Sameul's culinary debut began right in SHATEC, out of sheer interest in the craft and a desire to come into his own. Also, as a trainee, you would never go hungry in the kitchen!

On the first day of his internship at InterContinental Singapore, he began to cook and soon impressed his Sous Chef. Sameul will work under Chef Marvas Ng from January next year at a new restaurant opening in Marina Bay Sands.

"After training at SHATEC, I was able to hit the ground running in my new role at Raffles. I had the edge over my peers, who were fresh graduates from other Singapore education institutions, in performing skills like turndown services."

Invigorated by the prospect of meeting people from various parts of the world, Javier has experienced working in service-oriented roles prior to SHATEC. Here, with the help of his trainers and classmates, he gained new insight to chart the course for his personal and career growth.

He is excited to serve the next wave of experience-hungry travellers and be a big part of the guest experience as a Raffles Butler.

"In taking this leap, I found that if I put in the work and am curious to learn and grow, it will take me to places that I least expect. Now, I aspire to be a Pastry Chef in the industry, and moving forward, run a business someday!"

Ashley has seen the food industry first-hand via her food science background and is ready to swap her lab coat for a chef's jacket. Hearing of SHATEC's fine reputation, she set forth to pursue her desired career as a Pastry Chef!

Presently, she works in Pastry at CÉ LA VI. Finding links between what she learnt at SHATEC and her work tasks was satisfying. Ashley was able to take more away from her classes, such as applying the methods and formulas to calculate food costing effectively in her job.

"Having moved from manufacturing engineering to F&B, I have had to re-learn new approaches, from operating independently to working in a team now. Thankfully, I can seek advice from my trainers and improve myself!"

Koh Swee Lim (Marco)

Chairman's List

WSQ Diploma in Food Services (Pastry and Baking)

A mid-career switcher and upcoming café owner, Marco is making his first foray into running a F&B business specialising in fusion pastries. With steadfast resolve, he joined SHATEC as a pastry student, while also being trained in service and culinary skills to round out his entrepreneurship journey.

Marco anticipates the fun and challenges ahead, which include having compelling offerings to draw crowds.

Award Recipients

“The pandemic pushed me to pursue my studies again. I realised I needed to leave my comfort zone and learn new skills to stay competent in the current market. I told myself: If not now, then when?”

Noemi Pun Nyuk Yin
Inspiring Learners' Award
WSQ Diploma in Hotel and Accommodation Services
(Part-Time)

Noemi has been working in the cruise industry for four years in shore-based operations, amidst changing COVID-19 protocols. She also sees herself taking on a new role on board the ship, such as ship embarkation or reception duties.

After a critical training period at SHATEC, Noemi takes with her improved communication skills towards customers and great memories with her team members!

“During this downtime for my industry, why not upgrade my skills instead of waiting for COVID-19 to tide over? Also, I am showing to my kids that if I can do it, they can too!”

Currently a Pastry Cook at SATS, Pui San knew that in spite of a slow aviation recovery within Singapore and the wider region, she had to be ready for more changes afoot. To prepare for a volatile market situation, she wanted to learn something new: the culinary craft, which introduces more job prospects.

Pui San's passion for F&B has deeper roots in her family history—a multigenerational food business that she operated and ran in her early work experiences. Having sustained long working hours due to the nature of her job, she learnt to be more resilient and versatile to the challenges in her path.
